

EcoBalance2020 Organized Session:
 “Opportunities and Challenges in Sustainable Consumption and Production”
 Real-time Webinar

3rd March 2021, 8:00pm-10:00pm (JST)

Financially supported by PECoP-Asia Project (<http://www.susdesign.t.u-tokyo.ac.jp/s-16/>)

1. Aim & Scope

Considering the concept of sustainable consumption and production (SCP) inherently covers diversified fields, we will share the state-of-the-art research and practices on SCP by scholars in different regions/countries. Each speaker will address the following questions: 1) What are the challenges and opportunities to achieve SCP in your region?, 2) What are some of the best practices and examples?, and 3) What are the methodologies used? Through interactive discussion among presenters and participants, we will discuss opportunities and challenges in SCP.

2. Where to meet

Zoom webinar (https://u-tokyo-ac-jp.zoom.us/webinar/register/WN_CpYkhJXyQDmJQ_kLYgdcGg)

Pre-registration is required. Upon registration, you will receive the URL to access the webinar by email.

3. Webinar program on 3rd March 2021 (Local time in Japan (JST))

8:00-8:05	Opening remarks	Yusuke Kishita, The University of Tokyo, Japan
8:05-8:15	Introduction to SCP research and PECoP-Asia	Masahiko Hirao, The University of Tokyo, Japan
8:15-8:30	Keynote speech: Sustainable Consumption and Production in Response to the Pandemic: Building Back from the Impact	Anthony S.F. Chiu, De La Salle University, Manila, the Philippines
8:30-9:20	Invited speech (1): Sustainable consumption and production in cities: Niches of internet biking and circular urban agriculture	Jaco Quist, Delft University of Technology, the Netherlands
	Invited speech (2): From the Asia Pacific SCP network to the national SCP networks: A case study of Thailand	Thumrongrut Mungcharoen, National Science and Technology Development Agency (NSTDA), Thailand
	Invited speech (3): Transitions to sharing? Barriers and enablers for collaborative consumption in Southeast Asian cities	Monique Retamal, University of Technology, Sydney, Australia
	Invited speech (4): Sustainable Consumption and Production (SCP) Initiative for Sustainable Solid Waste Management in Malaysia	Ahmad Fariz Mohamed, Universiti Kebangsaan Malaysia (UKM), Malaysia
9:20-10:00	Interactive discussion with participants	All presenters (Facilitator: Yusuke Kishita, The University of Tokyo)
10:00	Close	